Thirlmere village

A backdrop to popular TV shows such as 'A Place to Call Home' and 'Always Greener', Thirlmere village is the director's choice for quaint country style. Set amongst the foothills of the Southern Highlands near Picton, Thirlmere is just 30 mins from Wollongong, Campbelltown and Bowral, and an hour south of Sydney.

The usually sleepy village is only ever awoken by the enchanting echo of a steam train tooting and chugging towards the town.
